SUNDAY SCHOOL
LESSON(By E. O. McLELLAN, Acting Director of Sunday School Course, The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)LESSON FOR AUGUST 1*QUEEN OF SHEBA VISITS SOLO-MON.LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 10:1-10, 12.
GOLDEN TEXT—Wisdom is better than rubies. Prov. 3:15.The visit of this wealthy queen from the region of southern Arabia has always appealed to the imaginations of men. Solomon's kingdom was at the apex of its glory. There were no wars, Israel's borders were extended and the temple and those other wonderful buildings had all been completed.The chief value of this lesson is not in Solomon's wisdom nor in what this queen saw and heard, but rather it is in what has, is being, and will be done by Christ, of whom Solomon is a type and who seized upon all of this glory to teach us a great lesson (see Matt.
6:28-34). Caesar's famous phrase, slightly altered, is in this connection quite applicable—"I came, I saw, I (was) conquered."I. "Hard Questions," vv. 1-3. Solomon is here a great type of Christ: (a) His greatness could not be hid (Mark 7:24). Solomon's fame filled the known world (1 Kings, 4:34). The fame of Solomon's wisdom, philosophy, proverbs, poems and knowledge of God (v. 1) drew to his court this queen, and we must recall that it was probably a 1,500-mile tortuous camel-back journey for her to come to his court.
(b) She brought a "very great store" (v. 10) of gifts, which, according to oriental custom, she presented to Solomon. Our best gift to our King is ourselves (2 Cor. 8:5). (c) She came to learn of "the name of the Lord" who had done so much for Solomon and his people; to learn wisdom for the guidance of herself and her people. We come to a King who possesses all wisdom (Matt. 12:42). Solomon had a wonderful missionary opportunity. God is today sending heart hungry people to this land from the most remote parts of the earth. Are we using our privilege to point them to the true God and to Jesus, his son?
This queen did not believe what she had heard (v. 7) and resolved to find out for herself. In this she is a rebuke to those more favorably situated who, though constantly beholding the work of God in human hearts and lives, still say, "I do not believe." The queen of Sheba will rise up in judgment against all who refuse to "come and see" (John 1:39, 45-51; Matt. 12:42).
(d) This visit is a prophecy of that day when the kings of Sheba and Saba will come with their gifts for the greater son of David (Psalm 72:10, 15; Isa. 60:6-9). The wisdom which our king bestows is eternal life, "to know him" (Prov. 2:6; John 17:3).II. "Had Seen All," vv. 4-7. When she had listened to Solomon's wisdom and heard the answers to her questions, the solutions to her problems, and had witnessed the wonders of his temple, court and ministers, "there was no more spirit (breath) in her." (Cf. Josh. 5:1.) And similar experience came to those three who went to the Mount of Transfiguration with Jesus. Solomon's wisdom is fulfilled in Christ (Col. 2:3). "The house that he built" is a type of that temple he is building of living stones (1 Peter 2:4, 5; Matt. 16:18). "The meat of his table" is exalted by the food on our king's table, the word of life (Jer.
15:16; Ps. 119:103), his own body (John 6:55). Our king, too, has his servants (Eph. 2:6; Rev. 3:21). Their "appeal" is not to be compared with the "robe of his righteousness" and our "standing" (2 Cor. 5:21) is more exalted than that of any at Solomon's, or other earthly courts. We are not servants but "friends," yet we are his ministers" (Rev. 5:10; 1 Pet. 2:9).
Various translations suggest (v. 5), "and his burnt offering which he offered in the house of the Lord."III. Praises, vv. 8-19, 12. (1) By testimony, vv. 8, 9. "Happy are they men" who listen to such wisdom, who dwell in the midst of such achievements. One of the greatest joys is to converse with the wise and the good. Our happiness is in our privilege of standing before Christ and to hear his wisdom (Luke 10:39-42; Prov.
13:20; 3:13, 14); no servant is debarred (John 12:26). The queen glorified the source of Solomon's glory, which was all the gift of Jehovah's grace (see 2 Sam. 12:24, 25; R. V. margin, Matt. 2:17; Isa. 42:1). She did not see the oppression of the people, the temptation to luxury and the decline in religious life which so soon led to decay after Solomon's death.
When our king shall reign he will "do judgment and justice."Even so our king blesses us abundantly "above all, we can ask or think" (see John 10:28; 17:32). The kingdom of heaven is greater than Solomon's (Matt. 12:42) (a) in wisdom (1 Cor. 1:24); (b) in riches (Eph.
2:8); (c) in power (Heb. 2:8); (d) in blessings (2 Chron. 1:15, cf. Phil.
4:19) and this kingdom is "among you."Men "see" what they are searching after; they receive true knowledge through experience. We may see this kingdom and its working if we let him, who is the "light of the world," enter our hearts and livesHIS WIFE'S NAME OMITTEDConsiderably Depreciated the Value of the Book Containing Speeches of Greatest Talkers."Sir," said the sleek-looking agent, approaching the desk of the meek-looking man and opening one of those folding thingamajigs showing styles of binding. "I believe I can interest you in this massive set of books containing the speeches of the world's greatest orators. Seventy volumes, one dollar down and one dollar a month until the price, $680, has been paid.
This set of books gives you the most celebrated speeches of the greatest talkers the world has ever known, and—""Let me see the index," said the meek man.The agent handed it to him, and he looked through it carefully and methodically, running his finger along the list of names.Reaching the end he handed the index back to the agent and said: "It isn't what you claim it is. I happen to know the greatest talker in the world, and you haven't her in the index."Barnum's Frankness.On one occasion Barnum had an elephant engaged in plowing on the sloping hill where it could plainly be seen by the passengers on the New Haven and Hartford railroad, an agricultural innovation that he knew would get notice of some sort in every newspaper in the country.It was even said that he received letters from farmers far and wide asking how much hay one elephant ate, and if it were more profitable to plow with an elephant than with horses or oxen.His replies were invariably frank, and were of this purport:"If you have a large museum in New York, and a great railway company sends trains full of passengers within eyeshot of the performance, it will pay, and pay well; but if you have no such institution, then horses or oxen will prove more economical."An Instance."We do everything in this country by machinery.""Yes, everything. Why, even in this very apartment house, they bring up the children by elevators."OKLAHOMA STATE FAIR 8 DAYS Sept. 25 To Oct. 2*WHERE THE INCHES COUNTEDBritish Statesman's Remarkably Neat Retort to Chairman's Shaft of "Wit."Lloyd-George's wit on the platform is well known, but here is one of the neatest retorts he ever made.He was addressing a meeting in South Wales, according to Pearson's Weekly, when the chairman, thinking to be witty at the chancellor's expense, remarked to the audience that he was a little disappointed in Lloyd-George's appearance."I had heard so much about Mr.
Lloyd-George," he said, "that I naturally expected to meet a big man in every sense; but, as you can see for yourself, he is very small in stature."Many an orator would have been grievously upset by such an unfortunate beginning to the proceedings, but not so Lloyd-George."I am grieved to find," he said, with mock seriousness, "that your chairman is disappointed in my size, but this is owing to the way you have here of measuring a man. In North Wales we measure a man from his chin up, but you evidently measure him from his chin down!"After that the chairman made no more personal remarks.Canned"Is your wife putting up any fruit this summer?""No, but I've canned a few peaches myself."

"You have?"

"Yes. I've had three different stenographers this year, and not one of them knew half as much about spelling and grammar as she did about the latest fashions."In a Restaurant.Angry Diner—Waiter, you are not would you do?"

"I'd turn the other cheek, also."Contrary to the general belief, flies do not pay particular attention to baldheaded men.Female suffrage, says an old bachelor, is caused by a scarcity of husbands.Melted Away.John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton university, said at the Lake Mohonk arbitration conference:"The day is not yet come when violence and oppression will melt away before right like the plumber's bill.
"Like, I repeat, the plumber's bill.
For a plumber, you know, once presented a millionaire a bill of $100 for mending a pipe.""But the millionaire handed the plumber a dollar note and said severely:

"Receipt that bill of yours in full."

"But—but—" said the plumber.

"Receipt it in full," the millionaire repeated. "I used to be a plumber myself.""The plumber at this gave a great start, receipted the bill and handed the millionaire 50 cents change."Beating the Bakers."Oh, I am almost tired to death!" said the woman who spends half her time addressing club meetings. "Our political economy club has been in session all day passing resolutions and drawing up petitions demanding a law regulating the price of bread.
Only think! Three dollars' worth of four costs, when baked into bread, $12. It's outrageous. We'll soon all be bankrupt. The bakers must be made to feel the power of the law.
You should have been at the meeting.""I couldn't come, I was too busy," said the calm-faced woman."Busy on a club day? What on earth at?""Baking bread," said the calm-faced woman.—New York Times.What He Did."Papa, who is this Thaw that the papers are always talking about?""He's the man who put the 'b' in "rainstorm."Of No Further Use."What are these volumes you are throwing out?"

"My library on international law."

Dayton (O.) boy, is president of the Boys' Box Furniture company, incorporated under the laws of the state.
It is a co-operative organization, numbering among its stockholders 23 boys, ranging from ten to seventeen years.The company operates from 4 to 6 p. m. daily and the company products are chairs, music racks, piano benches, writing desks, flower boxes, bird boxes and other light articles, for which it finds a ready sale.The profits are divided up at the end of the year on a basis of the number of hours worked by each boy. Last year the 23 stockholders divided nearly $9,000.The capital stock is one dollar a share. Some of the boys are anxious to buy more stock, but the rules of the company prohibit it.Young Monbeck has systematized house," said the bachelor, "I want to crying babies staying here.""I'm afraid there is," replied the landlady; "but we—""Well, I was just going to say," continued the other, "that if there are, I want you to put me in the room next to theirs. I want to wake up in the night and hear their trouble, so that I can congratulate myself again that I'm not married."Directions Wanted.Oculist—you will drop a little of
